Present yourself in 3 Pictures

Helps team members connect beyond business interactions, strengthening interpersonal bonds through shared personal insights.

Key steps

In preparation, each participant selects three images representing their character, values, or passions and brings them to the team event.

The team can share the prepared pictures in one of three formats depending on the project: a Speed Dating format where members rotate and discuss their pictures in short 1:1 exchanges; a Team Event where each person presents their three images and shares why they chose them; or a '3 Pictures Day' where employees wear a button featuring their images, sparking spontaneous conversations.
