Cooking Contest

Encouraging teamwork and creativity through a collaborative cooking experience during an offsite.

Key steps

Rent a large house for an offsite and make sure there is a well-equipped kitchen available in the house.

Form groups by drawing names, but instead of names you use courses (appetiser, starter, main dish, dessert, midnight snack, etcetera).

Connect a budget to every course, let groups brainstorm on what to make and give the addresses of a shopping mall.

Have an award ceremony by the end of the evening where winners are chosen democratically.
