Lunch and Learn

Sustaining continuous learning through monthly sessions led by internal speakers, focusing on company values and lessons from failures.

Key steps

Keep exchanging learnings by monthly learning sessions hosted by internal speakers, around (one of) the values.

These sessions could also address failures, and what people have learned from them. The idea is to stimulate discussion, and clarify that everyone has a story to share.

To have minimum impact on the ongoing business organise the sessions during lunchtime (catering or bring-your-own), preferably even in the cafeteria or company restaurant area.
