My Favourite…

A super easy, effective and fun format to get people to know each other better, with any size of group.

Key steps

Let people fill out a template with ten 'My Favourite' questions — my favourite vacation, book, food, band, Netflix series, etcetera.

Bring them into a speed date and have them exchange for six to eight rounds of four minutes.

Have an open round of what was really cool to learn about the others, then hang all the templates on the wall so people can look at them during breaks.
